Yes/No*                  *Delete as appropriate

Please note: Volunteers applying to become ICVs are required to undergo security checks which are carried out by the Metropolitan Police Service vetting department on behalf of the MPA. The MPA will not be able to appoint any applicant who fails that vetting process. Any criminal conviction you have had in the last 10 years, or police caution in the last 3 years, may seriously affect your chances of successful vetting clearance. You are required to have resided in the UK for the last three years in order to be vetted.

7. DISABILITY AND HEALTH

Please let us know if you require any reasonable adjustments, due to a disability or health condition, to enable you to attend an interview, or perform the duties of an independent custody visitor.
