Part 1 – Initial Screening

1. Officer(s) & Unit responsible for completing the assessment:

   Michael Shurety, HR Consultant and project leader.
   MPA HR Unit

2. Name of the policy:

   Whistleblowing policy and procedure

3. What is the main purpose or aims of the policy?

   The policy provides a framework whereby staff can raise concerns about illegal or unethical acts not covered by other MPA policies. It incorporates the principles of the Public Disclosure Act 1998. The MPA aims to ensure that the process for raising such concerns is simple, effective and confidential and that staff may invoke the procedure without fear of reprisal.

   The policy should not be used when the complaint is about employment matters, relationships with other staff, discrimination or bullying and harassment. These matters are dealt with under other appropriate HR policies.

   A review date of February 2011 is built into the policy.

4. Who will be the beneficiaries of the policy?

   All MPA staff and managers will benefit directly by having a clearly defined, legally compliant and articulated policy.

   MPA members, consultants and contractors will benefit indirectly from working in an environment where well defined HR policies exist.

   The policy covers staff on a permanent or fixed term contract, staff on secondment or attachment, agency staff, consultants, contractors and providers of services.

5. Has the policy been explained to those it might affect directly or indirectly?

   An HR policy launch and a number of introductory workshops have been planned.
   Each member of staff will be issued with a personal A-Z guide which will include details of this policy.
6. Have you consulted on this policy?

Drafts of the policy shared & agreed with the PCS by email on 20 April 2009. The policy was discussed and agreed by MPA SMT on 20 April 2009. A focus group representing a range of MPA staff considered the equality implications of this policy. A diversity breakdown of the membership of this focus group is attached as an Appendix.

7. Please complete the following table and give reasons/comments for where:

   (a) The policy could have a positive impact on any of the equality target groups or contributes to promoting equality, equal opportunities and improving relations within equality target groups.

   (b) The policy could have a negative impact on any of the equality target groups, i.e. disadvantage them in any way. If the impact is high, a full EIA should be completed.

<td>The policy takes account of the Employment Rights Act 1996, Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 and the Public Interest Disclosure Act (Prescribed Persons) Order 1999. The policy stresses that no members of staff should be subjected to harassment or victimisation as a result of raising a genuine concern. The identity of a member of staff raising a concern may be kept confidential in certain circumstances. The provisions of the policy apply to all groups listed in Section 7.</td>

8. Please give a brief description of how this policy benefits the equality target groups identified in the above table, i.e. promotes equality?

This policy follows HR best practice and is legislatively compliant. It can be applied to all groups and prevents any groups from being treated differently.

9. If there is a negative impact on any equality target group, is the impact intended or legal?

No negative impact identified.

If the negative impact is not intended, discriminatory and/or high in impact, complete part 1 and move on to the full assessment.

10. What actions could be taken to amend the policy to minimise the low negative impact?

Not applicable

11. If there is no evidence that the policy promotes equality, equal opportunities or improves relations within equality target groups, what amendments could be made to achieve this?

Not applicable

12. How will the policy be implemented including any necessary training?

The new HR policy framework will be launched at events planned to take place on 22 & 24 April 2009. The Chief Executive will introduce each event. All MPA staff will be invited to attend.

Workshops for line managers will be held to explain in detail the dispute resolution, discipline, performance improvement, recruitment and sickness management policies.

HR surgeries will be scheduled to deal with individual staff queries.

The full text of all HR policies will be available to all staff on the MPA intranet.

A staff handbook containing an A-Z guide and a summary of key policies will be issued to all staff and included with induction material for new starters. Replacement pages will be issued when policies are amended or updated.
