Usage of Staff and Resources
Deliver key milestones of programme of devolution according to agreed timescales within project plan	Broad devolution to all remaining OCUs and BOCUs with effect from April 2003	Emergency &amp; Reactive Repairs, Cleaning, Energy, FME and Linguistics - devolved to all sites wef 1/4/03. Forensics - devolved to original 7 pathfinder sites wef 1/4/03. Service wide devolution of forensics budget planned from 1/4/04. Police Pay - devolution extended to a further 8 pathfinder sites wef 1/4/03. Ongoing evaluation of pathfinder sites as Internal Consultancy Group ( ICG ) are part of the project structure. ICG have completed an initial evaluation of the original 7 pathfinder sites. The evaluation report has been accepted by the Budget Devolution Project Board and 'signed off' by the Budget Devolution Steering Group. A summary of the evaluation report will be submitted to the MPA Finance Committee in November 2003. Business Support are monitoring pathfinder position on police pay to assist planning for wider devolution. Management Board have supported the recommendation not to devolve police pay to more sites in-year (2003-2004), however the budget will be devolved to a significant number of OCUs from April 2004. Management Board likely to decide on OCUs in December 2003. Further ICG evaluation of pathfinders will link in and follow other reviews around FRM roles ( Business Support lead ), F&amp;R structure ( Business Support lead ) and Borough Business Manager posts ( Territorial Policing lead ). These reviews are in progress. MPA Internal Audit have inspected one pathfinder OCU to check on compliance of devolution business rules; the audit findings will be discussed with the OCU Commander at the end of October 2003. A summary will be submitted with the ICG evaluation report to the MPA Finance Committee in November 2003. Additional audits will be arranged at a further one or more pathfinder OCUs. Audits at non-pathfinder OCUs may be considered later. New Finance / HR workshops for Finance Managers, Personnel Managers and senior management team members who have budgetary responsibilities will be held in December 2003.
Develop a Strategic Analytical Capability in the MPS
Achievement of the minimum standards set for the police service nationally for the implementation of NIM	Implement 100% of standards to national timescales	MPS Tactical Intelligence products are now available and are subject to trial in the workplace prior to confirmation as policy.
