

Consulting London

Each March the MPA issues a plan setting out the priorities, objectives and targets for the MPS for the next twelve months. We are currently preparing the plan for 2003/ 2004. As well as doing all our usual policing activity (like answering 999 calls, investigating murder and fighting terrorism) we will be concentrating substantially more collective effort on some key objectives. We want to know what you think we should be concentrating on and this is your opportunity to influence the choice of objectives.

Please choose any five of the policing objectives, from the list below. It is based on the current objectives (2002/2003), our Values statement and Race Equalities scheme.
