

From: _InformationTeam
Sent: 25 February 2010 16:37
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: FOI REQUEST

Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your request of 1st February 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 for the number of FOI requests received by Metropolitan Police Authority (MPS) in 2009.

Please note the MPA received 59 requests in this period.

If you are unhappy with the information provided you can write to me at our offices in Dean Farrar Street. I will then arrange for an independent officer who has not had any involvement to review the information or decision.

If you are still not satisfied with the outcome of the independent review, you are entitled to make a further request to the Information Commissioner, who will decide whether the request was dealt with in accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act. Additional information is available on the Information Commissioner's website: <http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk/>

Yours Sincerely

---

Cynthia Coleman

Metropolitan Police Authority
Authority Business & Members Support
Assistant Information Officer