Dear .....,

Further to my letter of 10 March 2006, I am responding to your Freedom of Information request of 6 March 2006, specifically your request for information about Hampstead Police Station.

You requested information on the proposed sale of police stations in the Metropolitan Police District, especially Hampstead Police Station".

My letter of 10 March 2006 informed you that your request regarding police stations in the Metropolitan Police District has been transferred to the Metropolitan Police Service for response.

I have not received a response from you to my request to be provided with more detail of the information that you required in relation to Hampstead Police Station.

I have therefore enclosed with this letter documents relating to Hampstead Police Station that have been released by the MPA to a previous Fol applicant.

I hope that you will find this information helpful.

However, if you are unhappy with the decision regarding your request for information you should in the first instance raise this with the MPA via its complaints procedure, details of which can be found on our website. Any complaint should be addressed to Jenny Trevillion, Complaints Officer, at the address above. If you are still unhappy after that, a further request can be made to the Information Commissioner, who will decide whether the request was dealt with in accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act. Further information is available on the Information Commissioner's website: www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk.

Yours sincerely,

Yvonne Peart
Information Officer
